

DamascusWay

The Road To Freedom

The Youth and Family Services coordinator role seeks to strengthen family systems, heal wounds, and support families on their pathway toward prosperity. The coordinator will work with the Destiny Services programming to address the unique needs of men, children, and families impacted by the contributing factors that lead to the cycle of incarceration. The coordinator will advocate for resources and provide guidance through mentorship.

Responsibilities

Program Execution & Implementation:

- Facilitate peer-support groups.
- Deliver Damascus Ways multi-generational, holistic/trauma-informed, multi-generational programming.
- Service planning and coordination.
- Evaluate and implement best-practice trends.

Leadership:

- Practice timely, efficient execution of programming and activities.
- Build connections and collaborations with government agencies, spiritual communities, non-profits, etc.
- Lead Destiny Dads and Destiny Way group activities.
- Display exemplary conduct, attitude, and strength-based approaches.
- Meet administration, data-collection, and reporting obligations.
- Uphold confidentiality standards.
- Perform other work duties including but not limited to youth outings, community events, conferences and more.

DamascusWay

The Road To Freedom

Qualifications

Education & Experience:

- A minimum of 2 years' experience in a related field.
- Eligible to be a Certified Peer Recovery Specialist with the State of Minnesota
- Experience working in a Christo-Centered/valued environment.

General Qualifications:

- Participate in all required meetings and staff activities, and other initiatives as directed.
- Able to pass all requirements to work with vulnerable adults and minors in both unsecured and secured facilities.
- Meet motor vehicle approval rating for insurance purposes.

Core Values and Self-Development

- Have a sincere belief that God loves the people we serve, and constantly strive to do the same.
- Be passionate about, and consistently convey, the mission, vision, and values of Damascus Way.
- Maintain, and grow in, an attitude of humility, respect, and love for others through service.
- Attend all required trainings and seek out and participate in other growth opportunities.

All candidates must agree with and adhere to Transforms Minnesota's Statement of Faith, Core Values, and Code of Conduct